Memory Box Ceremony

The Memory Box Ceremony is a lovely way to involve as many people as you want.

You can ask people to bring something to place in the memory box as part of the ceremony.

It could be a written message or a small gift - Just remember to say how big the box is!

A special way to have something from everyone who came to your wedding ceremony or your child's naming day.